Notes

Quotes

"I. Repentance unto life is an evangelical grace, the doctrine whereof is to be preached by every minister of the Gospel, as well as that of faith in Christ.

II. By it, a sinner, out of the sight and sense not only of the danger, but also of the filthiness and odiousness of his sins, as contrary to the holy nature, and righteous law of God; and upon the apprehension of His mercy in Christ to such as are penitent, so grieves for, and hates his sins, as to turn from them all unto God, purposing and endeavouring to walk with Him in all the ways of His commandments."

-Westminster Confession of Faith (1647),
Ch. 15: Repentance Unto Life

"Repentance is not something we can do on our own; it is a gift of God for which we should continually pray, whereby he convicts us of our sin and shows us the road to freed. Repentance does not mean we simply feel sad and uncomfortable. Nor does it involve a mere apology. To repent literally means to change the way we think. Thus, repentance is sometimes described as 'coming to our senses' (see Luke 15:17; 2 Tim. 2:25-26). It involves a waking up to the fact that we have been deceiving ourselves and that our ideas, attitudes, values, or goals have been wrong. If this change in thinking is genuine, it will lead to a renouncing of sin and a turning to God."

-Ken Sande, The Peacemaker

"What must we do, then, to be saved? To find God we must repent of the things we have done wrong, but...to truly become a Christian we must also repent of the reasons we ever did anything right. Pharisees only repent of their sins, but Christians repent for the very roots of their righteousness, too. We must learn how to repent of the sin under all our other sins and under all our righteousness – the sin of seeking to be our own Savior and Lord."

-Tim Keller (1950-2023), The Prodigal God

"May God grant you grace to deepen in your repentance! Pray that He will do the same for me! For repentance is just humility and humility stands in the low place, not on the mountains of pride. Therefore humility gets much grace because grace runs downhill!"

-Jack Miller (1928-1996), The Heart of the Servant Leader
