Inquirer Course- Interested in joining CPC? The first step is attending our Inquirer Course. The course meets during the Sunday school hour and after church for lunch on two consecutive Sundays. For more info or to sign up, visit Church Center or email admin@clarksvillepca.org.

Community Groups- If you've never been a part of a community group, we encourage you to try it out this fall. It's a great way to get involved and grow together with others in Christ and towards his likeness. If you would be interested in hosting or leading a community group in the fall of 2024, please contact Corey Boyd at admin@clarksvillepca.org or 931-561-8218.

CBSGFD's- We're hosting another round of Community Building Small Group Fellowship Dinners. Running through June and July, these meet-ups are a great way to get to know new people in our church by sharing a meal. Sign up on Church Center now!

Missions- This month, please pray for Ryan and Charli Ann Angel with Reform University Fellowship at Tennessee Tech.

Giving- Give online at www.clarksvillepca.org/give, on the Church Center app, set up a recurring bank draft, or text any dollar amount to 84321 to give. You can also give using the wooden boxes by the sanctuary doors.

Notes

Quotes

"The proud, those who exalt themselves and take no account of God, He puts down – beaten by His mighty arm. The powers that be, oppressors who tyrannize the poor and lowly, are deprived of their power and high standing, while those who are truly humble are exalted to great things. The hungry, those who realize their own need and yearn for spiritual food, are blessed. But the rich, those who are self-satisfied and proud, are shamed in the imagination of their hearts."

- Norval Goldenhuys (1918-1964)

The Gospel of Luke

"When the King of Kings and the Lord of Lords came into this world, he came into a stable. If you do not feel a sense of holy laughter within you, I do not see that you have a right to think that you are a Christian. Thank God, this is gospel... God turning the world upside down, reversing everything we have ever thought, everything we have taken pride in. They mighty? Why, he will pull them down from their seats. He has been doing so. He is still doing so. Let any man arise and say he is going to govern, to be the god of the whole world; you need not be afraid – he will be put down. Every dictator has gone down; they all do. Finally, the devil and all that belong to him will go down to the lake of fire and will be destroyed for ever. The Son of God has come into the world to do that."

- Martyn Lloyd-Jones (1899-1981)

"Bringing Down the Mighty"

"(Mary's song is about) the great works and deeds of God, for the strengthening of our faith, for the comforting of all those of low degree, and for the terrifying of all the mighty ones of earth. We are to let the hymn serve this threefold purpose; for she sang it not for herself alone but for us all, to sing it after her."

- Martin Luther (1483-1546)

Luther's Works

"Now Christ is busy turning things upside down in the world. He does not leave things as they are. He does not stand for the status quo; in that sense, he is not a conservative. He is radical, subversive, revolutionary. This is why it is so deadly for the church to follow the culture. Jesus opposes the pride that rules the world, and if we are on the side of injustice, he is opposed to us. The child who put the song into Mary's heart was the world's most dangerous baby!"

- Philip Ryken

The Incarnation in the Gospels
